CELEBRATING ST. JOHN BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE

Student Reflection

For me being Lasallian means being able to serve my community in any way possible. Following the footsteps of St. John Baptist de La Salle by helping others in need. Welcoming people into our community as a part of our family. I strive to become a leader. To be the best person I can be. Being kind and loving to others. Valuing the Lasallian core principles to be that leader. To have faith in God to accomplish my goals and guiding others to do the same.

Prayer

God of all peoples, You sent Jesus so that we might know You. Each of us are made in your image, and Jesus is our example. Help us to be like him: open to others and always ready to love.

Amen

FACTS OF THE DAY

De La Salle

In 1950 Saint John Baptist de La Salle was declared the patron saint of Educators by Pope Pius XII, because of De La Salle’s writing on schools and teaching.

Lasallian Institute

CRDLS is partnered (twinned) with a school in Karemeno, Kenya. St. La Salle School is a High School with around 150 students. The students live and work on the campus farm, as well as the classrooms and wider community.
